

David Cox

For Liberal Democrat Candidate – Teignmouth Division

David has lived in Teignmouth since he was 9 years old.

David is a former Mayor of Teignmouth, and was first elected a town councillor in 1985.

David is Chairman of a local charity and volunteers to help the community.

David topped the poll last year to retain the Teignmouth West ward on Teignbridge council with 1035 votes.

Dear Members,

The Teignmouth is a very special place, I feel fortunate to have been brought up here and have had the privilege to be Mayor of Teignmouth.

As a councillor I have put my energies into working to make Teignmouth a better place, and work with people of all opinions. Our community is packed with talented people that want to make a difference, all too often they are marginalised by council bureaucracy. My priority is to create happier and prosperous Teignmouth - to give more responsibility and resources to local people to unleash their energy and talent.

I hope you will support me, to be the Liberal Democrat candidate for the Teignmouth Division.

Yours

David
